Child Rescued From Creek After 4-Year Brother Tries, Fails

PROMPT WORK OF NEIGHBORS SAVES LIFE OF BABY BOY

FALLS INTO CREEK

Playing with his older brother, Bobby, four, little two-year-old Billy Forhan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Forhan, had a miraculous escape from drowning on Tuesday afternoon, when he fell into the swollen creek which crosses Gorham St. The creek is three or four feet deep.

The children were playing at the edge of the water when the younger child tumbled in and was swept down the creek by the current.

Bobby tried to go in after his brother but found the water too cold, and so went to get help from his grandmother, Mrs. David Thoms, who lives on Gorham St. Meanwhile, Mrs. Gordon Brewer, who lives nearby on Lydia St., arrived on the scene, rushed in and pulled the child out of the water and called for help. He was unconscious when she pulled him out.

W. J. Broughton, electrician, a nearby resident, assisted by Miss Doris Johns, who was passing at the time of the accident, started artificial respiration and applied spirits of ammonia, which Mr. Broughton was carrying in his pocket, to the child's nose. After a few anxious moments the child began to cough and splutter and had soon revived. He was taken to his grandmother's home and Dr. J. C. R. Edwards was called.

Little Billy is a nephew of Bill Thoms, formerly of Newmarket, and player on the Chicago Black Hawks hockey team.

SUTTON HAS NEW $12,000 POST-OFFICE

A new $12,000 post office has just been completed in Sutton and will be open toward the end of May, it is expected. It is constructed of light brick with stone facings, and is to be entirely devoted to post-office work.

INSTITUTE FOR BLIND OPERATES FACTORY

Through the facilities provided by the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, 38 blind girls were steadily employed all last year in the making of aprons and house-dresses. The factory is located in Toronto. The blind operators of the power-driven sewing machines come from all parts of Ontario.

A tag day for this organization will be held here on May 4.

WILL STAY TILL JUNE 1

Mrs. Nelson Stuthers (nee Marjorie Monahan) assistant superintendent at York county hospital, a recent bride, will carry on with her duties at the hospital till June 1.

BANQUET IS MONDAY

The Mercantile hockey league banquet is being held at the Christian church on Monday evening, at 6.30 o'clock.

CHILDREN BLAMED WHEN CURTAIN CATCHES FIRE

A fire at the home of John McDonald, Charles St., on Saturday afternoon, did not get far, but was out before the fire brigade under Chief W. W. Osborne could get there.

The alarm was rung in at 5.20 p.m. when a curtain caught fire. The origin of the fire was unexplained, but was attributed to children playing with matches.

FOUR GENERATIONS ARE PRESENT AT 90TH BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION OF MRS. E. ROSE

Thirty-eight Millard Ave. was the scene of a merry birthday party on Tuesday when relatives, neighbors and friends all united to give Mrs. E. Rose a happy 90th birthday. From breakfast time till night a stream of well-wishers kept up the birthday celebration, and Mrs. Rose gallantly met all-comers with her cheery smile and words of greeting, thoroughly enjoying it all day long. In the evening there was a family dinner party when, among the guests, four generations were present. Mrs. Rose, her daughter, Mrs. Robert Pinder of Lansing, Mrs. Pinder's son and her son's little daughter, Patricia. Among the numerous gifts was a photo in a silver frame of the

SOFTBALL MEETING IS TO BE HELD FRIDAY NIGHT

For the purpose of electing an executive for the coming season, the annual Newmarket softball association will hold their annual meeting on Friday night, April 19, at 7.30 p.m. in the council chambers, Newmarket.

All officers and those interested in softball are asked to kindly be on hand to discuss the prospects and general business for this summer.

HAS OPERATION

Miss Helen Epworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Epworth, is getting along nicely following an appendix operation at York county hospital last Thursday afternoon.

THE SPIANS COMPETE TONIGHT, TOMORROW

Tonight and tomorrow night promise to be big nights in the local town hall when the York County Junior Farmers stage their sixth annual drama festival, with one-act plays presented by the Sharon, Victoria Square and Nobleton clubs on Thursday night, while the Vellore and Unionville performances will be on Friday night.

This is the first time this competition has been held in the town hall, all previous contests having taken place in Pickering College auditorium. However, the students this year are using the stage there for their own rehearsals this week.

The general direction of the festival is in the charge of the local agricultural representative, W. M. Cockburn, who is very proud of the progress which has been made by his juniors under the training of the efficient directors which each club has secured to train them. The festival is primarily to provide this very valuable training with a little competition thrown in to add to the fun, although very definite rules are rigidly enforced to eliminate long intermissions. For instance, only two minutes are allowed for each group to clear the stage as their performance ends and the next act must be ready for the curtain in ten minutes. This time has not been exceeded in the past four years.

As there are only two plays on the 19th, the committee has engaged Zanolli, "The Mystery Man," one of Toronto's most popular magicians, to entertain for half an hour or so while the adjudicator prepares his reports.

A new feature in this festival is the adjudicator's five-minute outline to the audience of the method of judging, before the show opens. This was tried out successfully last year and enabled the audience to see, as it were, the plays "through the same opera glasses." This takes place promptly at 8.30, when the doors will be closed, so be early to avoid disappointment.

There are no reserved seats owing to the large number who attend from all over the county.

EMPLOY BLIND GIRLS

There are five blind stenographers employed in the head office of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind. Correspondence carried on between the Institute's blind field agents and head office is written by these blind girls, who take dictation from the dictaphone and handle their typewriters with skill comparable to the average sighted typist. A tag day to assist the Institute will be held here on May 4.

POLICE CHIEF GETS SALARY INCREASE, $2

COMPROMISE SUGGESTION ACCEPTED BY MEMBERS OF TOWN COUNCIL

CHIEF BUYS CAR

A recommendation from the police committee that Chief Constable James Sloss should receive a $3 per week increase in salary and Constable Kenneth Mount receive a $1 per week increase was turned down by the town council on Monday evening.

Chief Sloss was given a $2 increase and Constable Mount's salary remained unchanged.

Councillor Wm. Dixon, chairman of the police committee, said that Chief Sloss had been under heavy expense in the purchase of a new car, and that the committee was recommending an increase in salary instead of an increase in car allowance.

"Car allowances will start people talking," said Mr. Dixon. "When you give allowances you are always open to suspicion."

"The girl in the office is handling the business of this town for $17 per week," said Councillor Arthur Evans. "We should start with her salary first."

"I think that he is underpaid as to his car," said Reeve Fred A. Lundy. "I understand that he wants to leave his car for the use of the night man."

"The salary we are paying for a constable isn't a bad salary," said Deputy-Reeve Joseph Vale. "But for all the use of his car I would support an increase in car allowance."

"Take into consideration that he is doing relief work too," said Mr. Dixon. "If you figure it out, I don't think that the cost of a constable is as high as it has been in the past. We do a lot of work in the police department, but we do things quietly. A week ago, for instance, we were cleaning up things that had become objectionable along Main St. You couldn't find two more efficient police in Ontario. The chief is on duty 14, 16 and 18 hours a day."

"If the car allowance is insufficient, raise the car allowance," suggested Mayor Dr. S. J. Boyd. "I would increase the car allowance $2 a week," said Mr. Vale.

"If you are in favor of giving $2 a week, I think it would be better to put it on his salary," said Councillor D. O. Mungovan. "The chief gets $25, and the constable draws $24.85 a week. That will not make for harmony."

"I think the trouble is that Sloss sees county men getting $1,700 a year for the same class of work," said Mr. Vale. "The county has a scale of wages for its police."

"Why is the cost of police everywhere, in the county and here, going up?" asked Reeve Lundy. "Are people so much worse than they used to be?"

"The cost in Newmarket really hasn't gone up so much," said N. L. Mathews, K.C., clerk and solicitor.

"Sloss is really the 'Admirable Crichton,'" said Mr. Vale. "You had Hall, Howard and Tommy Davidson at the one time," said Mr. Mathews.

"You will agree that the duties of the police are increasing every year," said Dr. Boyd. "The days of officers sitting in cars and taking numbers are over," said Mr. Lundy.

Members of the council taking exception to this statement, Mr. Lundy said that the law changes on June 1. "The police will have to go after them and stop them," he said.

As a compromise between salary increases for the two officers and the alternative of increasing the chief's car allowance, Mr. Vale introduced the motion which was adopted that the chief be given a $2 a week salary increase.

Chief Sloss receives a car allowance of $7 a week.

HOLES ARE PLENTY IN TOWN'S PAVEMENTS

Newmarket pavements have developed a great number of holes during the spring break-up, according to Mayor Dr. S. J. Boyd and Councillor Frank Bowser, chairman of the road and bridge committee.

"Don't I know it," said Mr. Bowser Monday evening. Councillor A. V. Higginson, former chairman of the road and bridge committee, advised the repairs should not be home-made but properly rolled in by a paving company.

NEWMARKET LOSES OUTSTANDING CITIZEN

Newmarket will suffer a serious loss shortly when George D. Wark, one of Newmarket's outstanding citizens, leaves to reside at least temporarily in Orillia.

While Mr. Wark, with characteristic reticence, has not given any reason for his removal, it is guessed that it is for health reasons. Demands on his time and energies have been tremendous, and the more he has done the more people have expected of him.

Mr. Wark in recent years has been chairman of the York county hospital board, chairman of the high school board, the secretary and main-pillar of Trinity United church, and a "friend in need" for every worth-while organization and undertaking in town.

He was active in the Red Cross war work canvass and recently has been busy with the Salvation Army canvass. He was invited to take part in the Y.M.C.A. canvass.

Born at Tara, near Owen Sound, Mr. Wark has remained a bachelor, and worked most of his business life with the Office Specialty Manufacturing Co. He was over 27 years in the employ of this company, ten years in Toronto and over 17 years in Newmarket. He was secretary of the company at the time of his retirement. He has lived in Newmarket over 24 years.

Mr. Wark has been an extremely generous giver of his time and his means, and it will be widely hoped that a few months, or even a few weeks, away from home will give him the rest which he needs and that he will soon be back again in the town to which he has given so much.

MAKES UP A BOUQUET EVERY TWO MINUTES

Newmarket people were delighted and amazed when Mrs. Percy Waters, a Toronto florist, arranged in impressive fashion over 40 bouquets in the course of an hour and a half, in St. Paul's memorial hall last Thursday evening.

Using a great variety of containers and stem-holders, Mrs. Waters took her flowers from packages already prepared for each bouquet. She had still to clip the stems and arrange the flowers, and she did it with an amazing speed and dexterity.

The resultant bouquets were shown by Mrs. N. L. Mathews and Mrs. J. C. R. Edwards, officers of the Home and School Association, and then handed down to a group of girls who took turns in carrying them up and down the aisle. The bouquets were exquisite and even breath-taking. If there was any criticism to voice, it was that the florist seemed sometimes to add unnecessary beauty to already beautiful bouquets.

Mrs. E. H. Perrin, Newmarket florist, gave prizes to the following girls for their posters advertising the evening: first, Peggy King, second, Bernice Scott, third, Helen Walton, special, Betty Mitchell. The prize-winning posters were selected by Mrs. Waters.

Mrs. W. A. McChaffey explained the objects of the Home and School Association, and the Presbyterian church orchestra, under the leadership of H. A. Jackson, principal of the public school, provided music in a delightful manner.

QUARTET OF MINISTERS WILL SING AT CONVENTION

Toronto Centre North Presbyterian of the United church is holding its annual Y.P.U. convention in Queensville United church on Wednesday evening, May 1, at 7.30, standard time.

Lunch will be in the form of a "pot luck supper," and there will be special music by the ministerial quartet, composed of Rev. C. E. Fockler of Keswick, Rev. Douglas Davis of King, Dr. E. J. Thompson of Aurora, and Rev. Hugh Shannon of Queensville.

The guest speaker will be Rev. Garnet Lynd of Downsview. The election and installation service of the new presbytery executive will be conducted by Rev. R. R. McMath of Newmarket.

Miss Vera Hunter of Laskay, president, will preside at the convention and Miss Ila Haines of Sharon is secretary.

ANDY CLARKE ASKED TO NOTE STILLBIRTH OF 153 POUND HOLSTEIN CALF AT KESWICK

Editor, The Era: I have been a constant listener to that very interesting broadcast of the happenings gleaned from the local newspapers of Ontario by Andy Clarke every Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. His items re twin calves and quadruplet lambs born recently on some farm in Ontario mentioned last Sunday morning, suggested to me that I would relate a very unusual happening on our home farm here at Keswick.

Last year (1939) no less than five pairs of twin calves were born. Also a few weeks ago a Holstein calf was stillborn, which weighed 153 pounds. A veterinary was in attendance but the cow, a valuable one, also died. I thought possibly these unusual circumstances might catch the eye of Mr. Clarke and he might include them in his next Sunday broadcast.

Yours truly,
Wm. Marriott.

Keswick, April 15.

BUSINESS MEN ASK OWN CARS BE KEPT OFF

COUNCIL WILL CO-OPERATE IN PROVIDING LIGHTED PARKING

MAYOR PLEASED

Suggestions made by a deputation from Newmarket board of trade for the relief of congestion on Main St. and for the convenience of visitors to town were welcomed by the town council on Monday evening.

"We are not only willing but anxious to co-operate with the governing body of the town," said Alex. Eves, president of the board of trade. He was accompanied by Harry Bell and J. O. Little.

"Parking on Main St. has been a bugbear in the town for some time," said Mr. Eves. He then read a resolution passed by the board of trade as follows: That a deputation from the board suggest that the town council approach W. L. Bosworth to obtain use of his parking lot on the north side of Botsford St., that this lot and the market square be well lighted, that a man be engaged to supervise the parking on Saturday nights, and that lavatory facilities be provided for both men and women at the market building.

"You have an opportunity to make very comfortable rest-rooms in the market building at very little cost," said Mr. Little. "You have unemployed men to supervise the parking, and you could locate a great many cars near the market building, if they are properly arranged. It will show the farm people that we appreciate their coming to town."

"The parking on Main St. is an old story. You have an estimate of the cost of removing a foot and a half or two feet from the sidewalk on each side of Main St., which is probably out of the question at the present time."

"The space at the market square and on the Bosworth property would look after the cars."

"I would ask the police to check up on the cars on Main St. and have the police fine business people who park on Main St.," said Mr. Eves. "We have to show the country people that we appreciate them. It is time action was taken in the interests of the town."

"This recommendation comes from a responsible body," said Councillor A. D. Evans, who was acting as chairman.

"This is a splendid suggestion and I wish to thank the board of trade for their co-operation," said Mayor Dr. S. J. Boyd.

Mr. Evans said that there already were rest-rooms upstairs in the town hall.

Mr. Little suggested that additional rest-rooms be built on the ground floor and in the basement.

Deputy-Reeve Joseph Vale said that the town was already paying the King George hotel for rest-room facilities.

"We need the hotel as well," said Dr. Boyd. "We need both." Councillor Wm. Dixon, chairman of the police committee, expressed approval of the suggestions regarding parking and said that Chief Constable James Sloss had made a similar recommendation in his annual report.

Mr. Vale said that the town should use Wildfield Park rather than leasing the Bosworth property. He also disapproved of building new lavatories at the town hall, in addition to the present ones.

"Use the present lavatories," said Dr. Boyd.

Reeve F. A. Lundy said that farmers had objected to using parking lots before. Mr. Eves replied that the board of trade wanted the police to start with the business men's cars.

"The parking regulations were a failure the last time because the business men objected," said Mr. Evans. "It would be a shame not to do something now that we have a chance."

It was agreed that a committee of the board of trade should meet with the police committee, and that the police committee would then make recommendations to the council.

SING AT THORNHILL

Newmarket Trinity United church choir, under the direction of Illyd Harris, supplied the music at the special W. M. S. service at Thornhill United church on Sunday.

Many Generous Gifts Needed To Achieve Objective Of $2,000

J. O. LITTLE EXPRESSES APPRECIATION OF WAY CITIZENS HELP

ASKS ALL TO GIVE

"The ready response of citizens to the appeal for help for the overseas fund of the Y.M.C.A. is very gratifying to me, and must be equally so to every citizen of Newmarket," said J. O. Little, chairman of the canvass which got under way this week.

"More than 30 men, many of them war veterans, have readily agreed to canvass, and I am sure that they will find the same ready response from the citizens on whom they call," said Mr. Little.

"It will not be possible for our canvassers to call on every citizen in the limited time at our disposal, and we are asking every citizen to consider himself a canvasser and, if no one calls on him, to canvass himself and bring his contribution to the treasurer, Mr. F. H. Hewson, at the Imperial Bank," Mr. Little stated. "Blank pledge cards may be obtained from the treasurer."

"Our objective is $2,000, and while small gifts will be just as welcome, according to your means, and will play just as big a part in making up our objective, let me point out that a good many five and ten dollar gifts, and not a few twenty-fives and larger gifts will be necessary if we are to go over the top."

"The young men from Newmarket who offered their services and their lives did not stop to consider whether they could afford to do so, and I do not believe that those of us who remain at home are going to be any less generous. Let us each give to the best of our ability, and help assure comfort, entertainment and a high morale for our boys across the seas."

SONS OF ENGLAND DEFEAT CYCLING CLUB

Last Thursday night Sons of England again vanquished the Aurora Cycling club in a basketball fixture at the high school gym. The score was 27-11 for the Sons, with Lynn Sparks being the big scorer for the lodgemen as he notched 20 points. Herb Holman was another standout for the winners. A return engagement is being played this evening.

STREETS ARE HEAVY

Several of the unpaved streets in St. Patrick's ward are in their usual springtime well-nigh impassable condition.

GET "LITTLE ONES" TOXOIED, SAYS M.O.H.

Dr. J. H. Wesley, M. O. H., and the board of health, were authorized to arrange for the toxoiding of all children who need it, at a meeting of the town council on Monday evening.

It was stated that the last time it was done the town's doctors did the whole job for a fee of $10 each.

"Almost all infants 6 to 12 months of age are susceptible to diphtheria," Dr. Wesley told The Era. "The death rate for this disease is the highest among those of early life and one-half of all the deaths from diphtheria are of pre-school age. Therefore better have all the babies toxoided while the work is being done."

"The town doctors have been round the schools and given all the children the first dose of toxoid, leaving two more to come, each three weeks apart."

WILL TAG MAY 4

"The telephone switchboard of the head office of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind is equipped with a 'Braille' panel, which enables it to be operated by a blind switchboard operator," Mrs. F. H. Robinson, chairman of the local committee in charge of a tag day in aid of the society, to be held here on May 4, told The Era this week.

"Three blind members of the Institute staff are efficient switchboard operators," she said.

IS ILL

Thomas Pritchard, postal employee, has been confined to his home for the past week through illness.

SLAPS 'N' SCRAPS

HERE THERE EVERYWHERE

By RALPH M. ADAMS

With the diamonds wet and the weather still on the chilly side, the local softballers are beginning to chafe at the bit for a little action and I don't blame them. Winter is all right, but we sure have had a large overdose this year.

The prospects for a softball squad at the present time are rosy, as most of the players from last year's team are available plus those who may graduate from the town league and from other sources.

From the looks of things the grouping of the teams in the softball loop will probably be the same as the past few years, with Newmarket, Aurora, Richmond Hill and probably a fourth team, altho' at present I have no information as to who it will be.

Condolences to the Aurora Tigers and to "Down the Centre" for their defeat at the hands of the good Waterloo Siskins in the semi-finals of the "B" series. They made a great bid for the title and deserve plenty of credit.

Hughie Mair, Newmarket's gift to the Marlboro juniors, deserves a first-class orchid this week for being picked on the junior all-star team of Ontario, as he really earned that honor, being one of the most consistent performers the Dukes had this winter.

When speaking about Hughie, I must say that his success in the puck world has not given him an inflated cranium, like some of the athletes who have had a small measure of Hughie's success and have puffed up like a pouter pigeon.

Talking to Hughie the other week, he still is the gangling kid that turned out for Newmarket's juvenile team a few seasons back and surprised the local fans with his speed and headwork.

Mair's only excuse for being kept off the score-sheet in the Oshawa series is, he says, that Tracy Shaw tied a knot on him and he didn't shake it off till the series was over.

The old scribe took another sock in the eye the other night when the Port Arthur Bear Cats bowed out of the Allan Cup picture to the Calgary Stampeder team, who turn out to be the real dark horses of the puck season.

Now I suppose I will have to go back to my Lakeshore Miners to defeat the Calgary outfit and they had better come through or my reputation for forecasting will be sadly in the doldrums.

Oshawa, if they win the Memorial Cup, will probably really earn it more than ever this year, as I understand the Kenora Thistles are everything their name implies and have the name of the roughest junior squad in the dominion.

Along the grapevine . . . Toronto Leafs ball club burned up the grapefruit league, knocking over the international and big league teams like a bunch of amateurs. . . They hardly look like the outfit that finished in (Page 4, Col. 5)

FLOOD WATERS AND THE "FUNNIES"

In the St. Marys Journal-Argus we read two weeks ago that the town had decided to do nothing about a request that sand-bags be piled along the Thames river-front to prevent flood waters submerging the town. A week ago we read that the water rose and the water receded. It rose high enough to fill basements but not high enough to flood store floors. The Journal-Argus discusses flood control. It tells of the huge sum being spent on the Grand river in the Fergus district to build a great dam which will turn former farm lands into a lake. The Journal-Argus favors the long-term cure of reforestation in the areas which the river drains, to delay the water in its mad rush to the sea. The same newspaper also speaks with approval of a series of small dams at the headwaters of troublesome rivers for the same purpose, to hold the water back and let it away in orderly fashion. The big dam, of course, is intended to perform the same function.

From the Ontario forestry branch we received in one envelope a number of circulars bearing on the same subject. One is a little paper called "Conservation," published by the Ontario Conservation and Reforestation Association, of which James Rennie of Markham township is president. This is "Vol. 1, No. 1" of a paper which is to appear quarterly, carrying a number of items of interest to conservationists.

Incidentally, this new paper gives a little boost to a new magazine, "Canadian Nature," recommended as an excellent gift for any school-teacher. Strangely enough, this publicity matter arrived the same day as the first copy of a Feb. 29 birthday gift subscription of "Canadian Nature" to the writer of The Era's weekly column "Chips and His Chums" (or, as we say around The Era office, "Chips and His Chumps"). The new magazine is all that Mr. Rennie of Markham township says, "filled with excellent reproductions," and is the sort of magazine we should be buying, instead of the trash that is pushed at us, if we wish to develop and maintain absorbing interests in the wonders of Mother Nature.

The other two circulars sent out by the forestry branch concern the free distribution of forest trees for forestry and wind-break purposes. One circular tells how farmers may make waste acres, steep hillsides, sandy or gravel areas or swamp land more valuable by planting trees. The other is an application form for free trees and tells for what purposes these free trees may be obtained. Among these purposes we would like to cite: the reclamation of unproductive wastelands which are lying idle and which would support forest growth; the protection by forest planting of slopes and hills which are subject to erosion and of light soils which are subject to blowing or drifting; the conserving of water flow by forest planting on the slopes at the headwaters of streams; the planting of shelter belts and windbreaks for the protection of agricultural crops.

We often hear of a "planned economy" as a cure for our economic ills. A "planned economy" is what we haven't. Men may strip their land of timber and leave it idle or put it under the plow regardless of the fact that when all their neighbors do the same thing the result is lessened fertility of the soil, a decrease in moisture, the drying up of wells, and even the blowing away of the rich top-soil which centuries of forest growth have deposited. One reads that British Columbia is gradually ridding itself of all its wealth of Douglas fir without planned replacement. We in Ontario are turning our noble and useful forest stands into comic strips (we should say "comic strips"), but we mean that we are destroying our agricultural and forest wealth, ruining our climate and bringing about flood conditions which we have to control with million-dollar dams, to make a few dollars selling pulpwood to be manufactured into "funnies." Oh yes, the funnies have their place, and newspapers have their place, but we should plan and replace as we sell what nature gave us.

Anyway, the Ontario department of lands and forests, of which Newmarket's Walter Cain (former St. John's separate school teacher) is deputy-minister, is trying to help us to help ourselves. The trees are yours for the asking, farmer friends.

WHOM SHALL WE BELIEVE?

For the first time since the war began we had, on Sunday, the privilege of hearing a German news broadcast in English from Berlin. It could hardly be called clever propaganda. Rather, it was blatant untruth, with the odd little bit of truth mixed in to make it hurt British ears. There was the general statement that Germany was fighting to right injustices and that Britain and France were fighting to hold their places in the sun and to maintain the status quo. There is a little kernel of truth in that statement, but it ignores the fact that Germany disdained peaceful means of righting her claimed injustices. Germany was not content with the parts of Czechoslovakia and Poland which she claimed, but took all of Czechoslovakia and as much of Poland as Russia hadn't already grabbed. The German argument also ignores the barbarous Nazi treatment of not only the citizens of these countries but particularly of German citizens of religions and races which did not fit into the Nazi mythology.

Nevertheless, it is a bit disconcerting to listen to such a Berlin broadcast. Whom are we to believe? Kaltenborn, the American commentator, said on Sunday that he accepts without question statements of the British admiralty, and that he would also accept statements of the German admiralty, but that usually German information comes through the ministry of propaganda and then he wouldn't believe a word of it. He said to remember that Hitler in Mein Kampf says that the bigger the lie the more likely people are to believe it. Kaltenborn then read statements of the British admiralty and the German high command (such a statement was unusual, he said) concerning the engagement at Narvik on Saturday and argued that there was nothing inconsistent between the two reports.

A point for us to remember is that we in our country are free to listen to enemy broadcasts, but that German citizens are not free to listen to British broadcasts. That suggests that we should not put much faith in what we hear broadcast from Berlin, until the long-hoped for change in government in that country takes place and a democratic government takes office, for given a chance we believe that the average German would be as honest as the average man in any country.

HOG PRICES

A prediction that the invasion of Denmark would mean the speedy return of $12 bacon for the farmer was made by W. M. Cockburn, York county agricultural representative, in last week's Era. The Era was hardly off the press before the packers were mailing cheques on the new basis. That is a tribute to Mr. Cockburn's understanding of the factors affecting the price of hogs, and suggests that farmers should also be equally ready to listen to him when he states that producers should strive to increase their knowledge of weights and finish. York county producers are already in the vanguard and with Mr. Cockburn's help they are going to do even better.

MAIN ST. TAKES ACTION

It is great to see Main St. business men and the town council co-operating in an effort to deal with the parking problem. The aim of these citizens is to provide better parking facilities for the farmers and to make the town more attractive to them as a place to do their shopping. The business men are going to take their own cars off the street, and are asking the council to provide lighted parking places near the street, so that the town's guests will have every convenience for doing their shopping here.

DOING THEIR BIT

It has been a revelation to those who are working on the Y.M.C.A. overseas canvass to find how ready everybody is to help. Newmarket citizens are not slow to do their share to provide comforts and entertainment for the boys overseas. The Y.M.C.A. provides trained recreation leaders, provides free entertainment, and in addition sells millions of dollars of merchandise to the soldiers, with any profit going back into the recreational work. Newmarket's returned men are taking a prominent part in the Y.M.C.A. campaign. Men who do their "bit" are always finding another "bit" to do.

MERRY MEETS AN INTEMPERATE SAPPER

BY RUTH DINGMAN HEBB

"It certainly seems funny to be flitting around on the ground and to run across a patch of snow every minute or two, so late in the spring as this," said Slaty, the Junco, with a vivacious flit of his white tail feathers. "Yes, it's discouraging, indeed," answered a pretty little Tree Sparrow, whose light grey and brownish markings and tiny brownish red cap easily distinguished him and his relatives from the Juncos. "But we Tree Sparrows are such early birds anyway that we don't mind it." "The early bird gets the worm," a Robin, who was running across the lawn, called to him with a smile, as he heard the Tree Sparrow's remark. "Tut, tut! Not at all, not at all!" answered the Sparrow. "Why I couldn't choke down a worm to save my life. I don't know how in the world you Robins do it. I live entirely on seeds. In fact, it even makes me shudder to see you pull a struggling worm out of the ground." "There's a Pheasant right there beside you, Slaty," Young Chips, the Chickadee, called from an overhanging branch above the lawn. "I suppose you see him, but I didn't notice you speaking or being friendly."

"Why should I be friendly, I don't like the Pheasants," said Slaty with a shrug. "The things I have heard about the activities of the Pheasants in the spring-time are scandalous. Why, they're worse than the Blue Jays." "What do you mean?" asked the Tree Sparrow, who had been listening. "Pillaging of nests of small birds," Slaty told him. "Destroying eggs and that sort of thing." "Good grief!" exclaimed Young Chips in horrified tones. "Why, I had no idea that the Pheasants were that type," another Tree Sparrow put in. "They try to keep it dark, of course," said the Junco, "and with their looks they can get away with a lot, but they don't pull any wool over my eyes—not any more."

"Here's Merry," said Young Chips happily, as he saw his mate approach and alight beside him. "Where have you been all morning?" "We've had the best time," chirped Merry enthusiastically. "We've been out in the woods. However, we ran into a big Marsh Hawk on our way over here, which rather took the wind out of our sails."

"Did the shock of having you run into him knock the breath out of him, or, otherwise, how did you get out of his clutches?" asked Young Chips with a grin. "Oh, you know what I mean, you Goose," Merry told him. "I mean we saw him circling around over the fields. We weren't terribly near him, but it was near enough for me. You are always so literal. However, I was certainly sorry to know that they are coming back."

"Say, you haven't even given me a chance to say hello," interrupted Mrs. Woody, the Downy Woodpecker. "Aren't we going to tell them about Sappy?" "Oh, yes, of course," said Merry. "But seeing that Marsh Hawk drove everything else out of my mind. It always worries me to see a Hawk, you know."

"That's because you're the worrying kind," said the Tree Sparrow. "I always say that the best protection for a bird is to always keep his eyes and ears open. If you're always alert then you know that you won't be taken unawares. However, what were you going to tell us about Sappy? Sappy who?"

"Sappy who?" repeated Merry with a laugh. "Who else could it be but Sappy, the Yellow-bellied Sapsucker? He's just back and in time to suck plenty of sap out of those awful holes he makes in the trees. He certainly is an inveterate drinker of sap, and, of course, since he makes rings of holes around the trees he does the trees harm too."

"Now, don't run him down too much," advised Mrs. Woody. "He's my cousin, you know, and he's very beautiful too, with his red forehead and throat, and black and white markings, and his pale yellow underparts."

"Well, if he'd act more like the other Woodpeckers he'd be all right," said Merry. "I'll admit that that many of the trees are actually killed by him, but they are weakened a great deal, and the holes he makes in the trees provide places for fungoid growth and harmful insects to lodge."

"He eats some insects you know," persisted Mrs. Woody. "Yes, but wait till I tell the others what he was doing down south," said Merry. "Imagine. I was absolutely shocked."

"What at?" inquired Slaty, the Junco.

"He told us that he had had a grand time down in Florida sucking the juice of oranges," she said. "He just sticks his long bill into the orange and sucks out the juice, and of course it ruins the orange."

"Merry, that sounds rather wicked," one of the Juncos said. "He must be quite a drinker, as you say."

"He gives the rest of us, who don't do any harm to the trees, quite a bad name," admitted Mrs. Woody. "Still I wouldn't say that he was all bad, even if he is a bit of a tipster."

"Oh, well, very few of us can be proud of all our relatives," said the Tree Sparrow. "Let's not be too hard on him, even if he has an incurable weakness for sap."

THIS IS
Arthur Jones*

WHEN the call came Arthur was a junior clerk earning a modest salary... he lived with his Mother and contributed weekly to the upkeep of the home.

Arthur had a pretty good time... his friends were fine young fellows like himself... eager, energetic, buoyant with faith in the future... the kind of fellows who will fill positions of responsibility in the Canada of tomorrow.

Arthur had simple tastes, good friends and a sincere faith in God. His love of country and the principles of democracy came as naturally as his respect for father and mother.

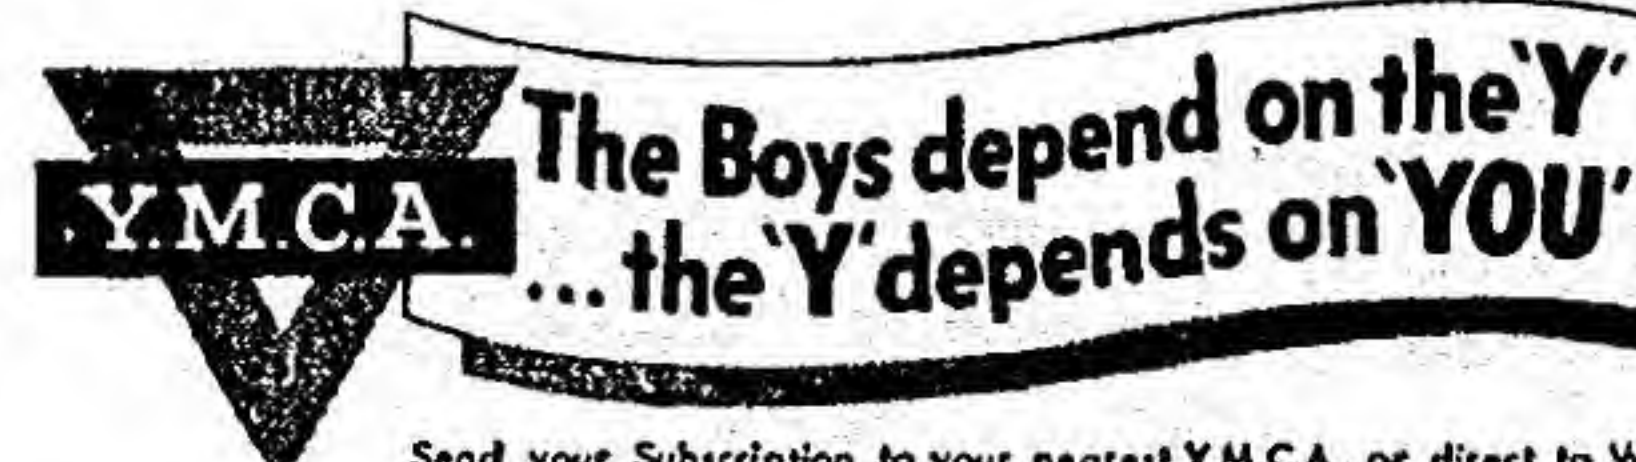

Arthur Jones enlisted to defend these things! Now he is in England... soon he may be in France... soon he will be living a fantastic reality far, far removed from that simple life he knew at home. Soon, dirt, mud, danger, excitement, exhaustion will crowd upon him... and to him; as to thousands more like him, will come the hunger and the necessity for relaxation... for momentary escape.

In those hastily-snatched moments of relaxation the influence about Private Jones will form his character—make him a better or a worse soldier—a better or a worse man—a better or a worse citizen in the great future which awaits Canada—after the war.

It is one of the tasks of the Y.M.C.A. to provide the kind of recreation, both in Canada and overseas, that will help Private Jones to remain—Arthur Jones—the fine, hopeful young man whose ideals sent him from his comfortable home to fight for us.

In Y.M.C.A. centres—in Canada, Britain and France—he will find the spirit of home, companionship, good books, games, wholesome entertainment, stationery to write home, helpful counsel and a host of other opportunities for worthwhile relaxation during off-duty hours. An atmosphere which will fortify, not weaken his ideals—which will strengthen him in body, mind and spirit.

Your influence in the moulding of the future of Arthur Jones, and that of his comrades, will be felt as you help the Y.M.C.A. carry forward this great Christian work. So give willingly and generously to the Canadian Y.M.C.A. War Services Campaign... make Your contribution to the maintenance of our boys' welfare, morale and spiritual well-being while they fight our battle—for democracy's ideals.

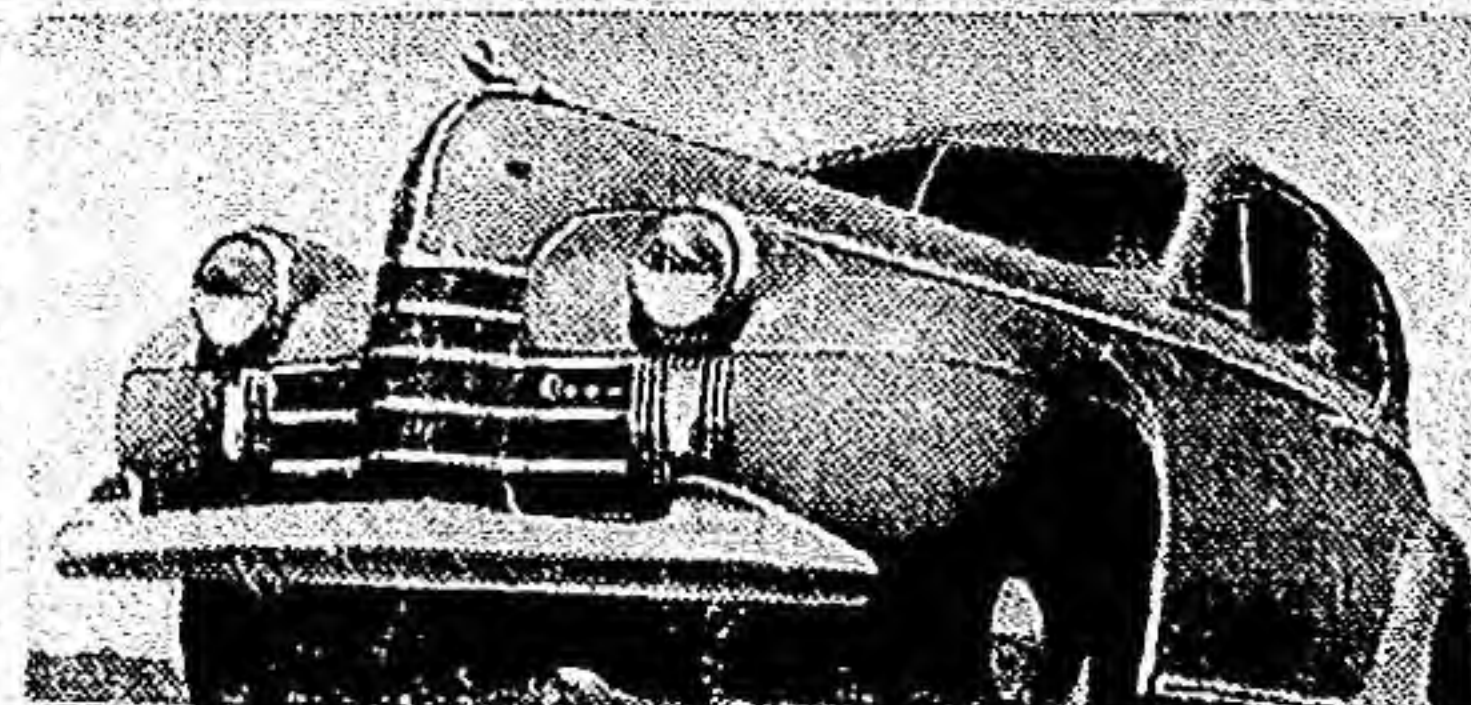

Send your Subscription to your nearest Y.M.C.A., or direct to W. J. Hostle, Treasurer, Canadian Y.M.C.A. War Services Fund, 48 College St., Toronto, Ont.

*Here the name "Arthur Jones" is used as a symbol—he may be your boy or any boy on service today in the Army, Navy or Air Force. His experiences and needs, however, are common to all.

Outside, inside, anyway you check upon it—you're impressed by Oldsmobile's unusual size. Big is the word for Olds, whether you're looking at the low-priced Sixty... the popular-priced Seventy... or the most glamorous car of the year, the Olds Custom 8 Cruiser! Oldsmobile is Canada's Biggest Money's Worth.

Spacious is the word for Oldsmobile's wide, roomy bodies by Fisher—luxurious is the word for their finer fittings and upholstery. The wider front seat, simplified controls and unobstructed floors permit the driver and two passengers to ride "up front" in uncramped ease. And the rear compartment is a revelation of roominess and solid comfort.

BIG WHEREVER BIGNESS means it's BETTER

Big Tires. Oldsmobile's low-pressure tires are extra large to provide smoother riding, better traction, longer wear. Musky Coil Springs. Modern coil springs all around contribute to Oldsmobile's restful Rhythmic Ride. Big, Sturdy Frame. Rigid X-member design. Box section construction and diagonal cross braces add strength. Big Engine. Even the low-priced Oldsmobile Sixty has a big 35 h.p. engine for economical super performance.

The demands of our Country and Empire, occasioned by another Great War, cause us to pause and recount the progress made in the quarter-century since the beginning of the first Great War.

Then but 10,000,000 acres were sown to wheat in contrast to over 25,000,000 acres now; then we exported but 25,000,000 lbs. of bacon and ham to Great Britain in a year, whereas this year our shipments will total over 260,000,000 lbs. Then the average yearly production of a dairy cow was 4,500 lbs. of milk which now has been raised to 6,500 lbs.

Farmers have been alert to the findings of science and the better practices developed by our agricultural colleges and experimental farms. Changed methods have brought vast improvements; higher standards of products have been attained and maintained. Science, too, applied by practical men of knowledge has, through the solving of many of our immediate problems, greatly increased the productivity of our farms and added immense sums to the farmers' yearly revenue.

Rust-resisting varieties of wheat have now ended the annual losses occurring from this perennial blight which is estimated to have cost the farmers of Western Canada in the 62 years of wheat growing, an amount in excess of half a billion dollars.

Grasshopper control efforts have been perfected to the point where the damage from these pests has been greatly curtailed, one authority placing the saving from this work at several hundreds of millions of bushels of grain in the last seven years.

And the agricultural implement engineer has been busy designing machines to meet the specific needs of the moment. Speed, less man-power, and lower costs of operation, have been the goal and as a result most machines have undergone great changes. Tractors have been tremendously improved. New machines have been made available. One-Way-Disc Seeders—till and sow in one operation, cutting the cost of these operations by 40% to 50%. The new Small Combines extend the use of this new low cost harvesting method to farms of all sizes—saving upwards of $1.60 per acre in harvesting costs.

Massey-Harris is proud to have played an important part in adding the contribution of the implement maker to those of the scientist and farmer in furthering the interests of agriculture.

BRING COURT FINES

Pleading guilty to a charge of driving a car which had no reflectors on its headlights, on March 28, Walter Mayne, Todmorden, was remanded for sentence on payment of costs here in police court on Tuesday.

The defendant said that there had been reflectors on the lights but that "they must have come off" while he was driving.

Stanley Pegg, Beeton, charged by Constable Ronald Watt with failing to produce a license on April 3, was fined $10 and costs of court.

Earl Mitchell, also of Beeton, pleaded guilty to a charge of driving in the township of King on April 3 without an operator's license. Accused was remanded for sentence on payment of costs. James V. Holl, Sterling, Ont., pleaded guilty to two charges, one of driving without a 1940 license and the other of driving without this year's license plates. Accused stated that on April 1 he had been driving in order to get another car. "It didn't seem right that I should buy a license for one day," he said.

"So you took a chance," stated Magistrate W. F. Woodliffe. "Yes," answered Holt. He was fined $3 and costs on the first charge and $2 and costs on the second.

Pleading guilty to a charge of failing to produce an operator's license on April 1, Frank Hanly, Schomberg, and P. W. Major, Lloydstown, were each fined $2 and costs.

Howard U. Harper, Goodwood, accused of driving without 1940 license plates, pleaded guilty and was fined $3 and costs.

"Have you your license plates now?" asked his worship.

"Yes, I got them that night," replied the defendant. He gave snow-blocked roads as the reason for not having them before.

"It was the first that I could get them," he stated.

"Were you getting them when the officer stopped you?" asked the Magistrate.

"No," replied Harper.

E. G. Brewer, Camp Borden, charged with driving a car on April 1 without license plates, was fined $4.50 and costs. On a second charge, that of driving without a 1940 operator's license, he was fined $2 and costs. Brewer, in his defence, claimed that he has an operator's license issued in the Province of Quebec, but that he had misplaced it.

Norman Harvey, Udonia, accused of operating a traction engine on the highway in Georgina township on April 2 and thus harming the paved road, was fined $3 and costs. Pleading guilty to the charge, Mr. Harvey said: "It was the only road I could go. All the other roads were blocked." F. A. Wilson, road foreman, described the road as paved with gravel and tar. He added that there were signs forbidding tractors to use the road. On April 1, he stated, he met Mr. Harvey's hired men driving the tractor on the road. Mr. Wilson stated that the ribs on the tractor wheels had made marks about one-half inch wide. These marks were traced two and a half miles, he said.

Constable Wm. Hill testified that he and Wilson "went over this part of the road." The tractor left marks on the pavement, he said.

Wm. Harvey, brother of the defendant, testified that he himself worked at the saw-mill, which was being pressed to fill an order of lumber. "It was necessary to get the tractor," he stated. "We had waited for a month already for the roads to open."

"The law says that you must not drive a tractor on that highway," said his worship. "Don't let it happen again."

In Memoriam

Burch—In loving memory of Harvey Frederick, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Burch, who passed away April 19, 1936. The rolling stream of life rolls on. But still the vacant chair. Recalls the love, the voice, the smile.

Of the one who once sat there. Deeply missed by father and mother and Evelyn Burch.

Draper—In loving memory of my mother, Mrs. Ralph Draper, who passed away on April 25, 1939. Two dear bright eyes, a tender smile.

A loving heart that knew no guile. Deep trust in God that all was right.

Her joy to make some other bright; If sick or suffering one she knew. Some gentle act of love she'd do. No thought of self, but of "the other".

I know He said "well done," dear mother. Sadly missed by her son, William.

Draper—In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Ralph Draper, who departed one year ago, April 25, 1939.

Pacefully sleeping, resting at last. The world's weary troubles and trials are past.

In silence she suffered, in patience she bore. Till God called her home to suffer no more.

Hattie and Percy

Smith—In loving memory of our dear mother, Barbara F. Smith, who departed this life April 19, 1938.

Night falls, but soon the morning light. Its glories shall restore; And thus the shadows that sleep in death. Shall wake to close no more. Remembered always by her family.

BROUGHT FROM WEST FOR BURIAL AT HOME

The death occurred suddenly last Friday, of Martin L. Bogart, at his home in Edgeley, Sask., in his 72nd year.

Mr. Bogart had lived in Saskatchewan since 1911, with the exception of three years, when he lived at the coast. He had always kept in touch with his Newmarket friends and visited here as often as he could. Mr. Bogart was a staunch Liberal in politics.

Surviving, besides his wife, are two sons, Clarence of Prongue, Sask., and Leslie of Tuxford, Sask., and one sister, Mrs. John Roadhouse of Newmarket.

The body was brought from Edgeley to Newmarket, where the funeral service was held from the chapel of Roadhouse and Rose on Wednesday. Interment was made in Newmarket cemetery.

RUGS ARE DISPLAYED AT DIOCEAN CONVENTION

Today St. Paul's W.A. is holding a rummage sale in the parish hall and looks forward to having plenty of fun besides making a little money to aid the work.

Next week they are inviting their friends to come again to the hall to see the finished work that will be sent to headquarters in the annual sale. The Diocesan secretary announced last Thursday that the rugs were all woven and ready, and that the members had been so industrious that there will be quite a few that can be spared to sell should anyone so desire.

St. Paul's W.A. has become quite famous for their woven rugs and always there are several on display at the annual diocesan convention held in St. James' cathedral parish hall, Toronto, the first week in May, and they have been greatly admired. The branch is fortunate in having a man in town who does splendid weaving and so makes it possible to do this kind of work. So if anyone is interested there will be a cordial welcome for them next Thursday at the parish hall. From May till September the W.A. holds only one meeting a month, after the deanery meeting in June.

Second Game With Siskins Puts Tigers Out Of Running

TIED TIGERS LOSE 4-3, SECOND GAME WITH WATERLOO MONDAY

By T. A. M. HULSE

By virtue of a will to win that could not be denied and masterful handling from the bench, Waterloo Siskins eliminated Aurora Tigers from the play-off picture with a brilliant 4-3 win in Maple Leaf Gardens on Monday night. On the night's play the Siskins deserved the decision as Tigers blew a three goal lead and faltered badly in the home stretch.

The game which sent Siskins into the final round against the Owen Sound Greys was of a rugged gruelling type, Referee Dutch Cain allowing the boys to mix it up freely. In the second period Jimmy Cummings and Shuttlesworth locked horns in a mid-ice encounter after some high sticking and both received major penalties. In the box the same two boys put on another scene and ended up battling in the aisle.

A wedding of interest to Aurorans is being solemnized in Toronto on Saturday, when Miss Winnifred Perigo of Toronto becomes the bride of Charles G. Southmayd, former Aurora resident. A number of guests from town are attending the wedding.

CURTIS TUNNEY BRENNAN

from the tired exhibition they had been displaying, but a gangling attack rebounded against them as Waterloo shot out the puck into the centre zone and Scott picked up the puck, only to lose it to Voll, who had no one between him and Tunney. Michaniuk and Donkin had grand chances to tie up the game as the seconds sped by, but weren't able to click. The game ended with Tigers being denied the tying goal as the bell rang.

McComb was the best of the weary Tiger team, who ten days ago might well have vanquished the Siskins. Lack of ice for practice, except in the afternoons when it was impossible for the team to assemble, was another reason for the loss.

The line-ups were the same as in Friday's game.

MARTIN TUNNEY SCOTT

The winning goal was scored by Ray Voll, who stole the puck from George Scott at the Aurora blue line and coasted in on Tunney unmolested to play the shot with coolness and precision to the upper left corner. Twice in the last five minutes Frank Michaniuk had only Hainsworth to beat and fanned on the efforts, missing the goal entirely once and shooting into Hainsworth's pads.

There was one feature about the game that will always leave a doubt among the fans, and provide plenty of material for argumentation and that is whether or not Tigers tied up the game in the last minute. Donkin, from where we were sitting, appeared to have pushed the puck into the corner of the net, which Hainsworth rolled on fast.

The goal judge, who was from Waterloo, said he did not see the puck and didn't know whether or not it was in. Equally insistent that it was a goal were two Aurora men in the immediate vicinity along with some of the rink ushers. Red Barber in the gondola afterwards said it wasn't in the net. Whatever the actual fact, it was a close play, and the referee ruled it no goal. A few minutes previously Cain had disallowed a Waterloo goal which actually was in the net but was booted into the cage.

"Pete" Donkin, who was a constant threat to a goal all night and had some great chances to score but was foiled by the Waterloo custodian, got the first goal of the game on a beautiful fast skating play, unassisted. Tunney in this period made two brilliant saves as Cressman and Bill Bauer waltzed in on him alone on different occasions. Brennan and Pepper Martin both drew down penalties for minor infractions and with the odd man advantage Waterloo were especially dangerous.

Curtis was penalized for tripping mid-way through the second period, but signalled his return to the ice by trapping the puck and passing to Joint McComb, who made no mistake with the biscuit. Thirty seconds later Cummings wound up on the end of a passing play with Michaniuk, to poke the puck in and give Tigers what seemed a safe lead. Seconds later the Cummings-Shuttlesworth battle ensued. The loss was a blow to the Tigers, as it meant the re-arranging of the forward lines. Martin, who was the leader of the Waterloo drive, from his defence spot scored at 17.32, as Tigers' defence appeared to relax with the lead.

Brennan was chased to start the third period and after holding off the attackers with ease a loose puck spelled disaster as R. Bauer scored a soft one three seconds before Brennan's time was up. Martin tied the count at 14.35 as he fired home the rubber after six Siskins had handled the puck inside the Tigers' blue-line. Aurora now put on a spurt

At about 1.15 a.m. early Friday morning, Albert Vines, who was at work at the Fleury-Bissell plant, was attracted to the Temperance St. entrance of the plant by the noise of a truck, and he arrived in time to see two men drive off hurriedly in a truck without lights. The truck was loaded with scrap-iron, which he thought to have been taken from the plant.

Vines immediately contacted Constable James Goulding, who was on night patrol in the vicinity, and he in turn summoned Chief Constable Dunham and County Constable Aubrey Fleury, who rushed to the scene. It was then too late to locate the truck, although an attempt was made, but all the police in York county were notified and particulars were sent out over the ether waves by the Toronto police. Within an hour two men were taken into custody by Constable DeGeer of the York township police, and the Aurora police were notified. The two turned out to be two Toronto youths aged 19. The truck was owned by the father of one and was loaded with 1,700 lbs. of iron worth about $20.

The two men appeared before Magistrate Keith on Friday morning and were held to appear before Magistrate Woodliffe at the Newmarket court on Tuesday, when they were remanded for a week.

DOWN THE CENTRE

JUST TOO, TOO DIVINE

We got a big kick from Alan Rose's column in the Brantford Expositor last week when we read about Referee Gordon "Beef" McKay. McKay was appointed to referee the Brantford series by the powers that be, and while Tigers weren't fussy about him they let the appointment stand rather than argue. McKay seemed fair in Maple Leaf Gardens, but when it came to the game in Brantford he might almost as well have put on a Lions' sweater, in our opinion.

Lions greeted his appointment as follows: "Beef McKay will referee tonight and that does not hurt the local situation. The Lions are used to him and know what to expect. The players have every respect for him and believe he is the man to handle the game properly. The morale of the club went higher as the announcement was made by the O.H.A." Looks as if Tommy Ivanoff had done his best for the boys, but even the seventh man didn't help much away from home. McKay will not referee for the Tigers again, and a bill for $18.50 for the Gardens game is reason enough alone.

Two other items from Al's column explain themselves. "This corner liked Aurora better than Owen Sound." They all say that after it's over! And another bit strengthens our claim that the Tigers really are crowd pleasers de luxe: "The greatest game of the kind ever staged in the West street ice-box" — that describes the battle of Brantford through rose-colored Brantford glasses.

Barrie Colts are being re-organized now, not next fall, and the committee in charge is to be congratulated on its ideas. Red ink is being eradicated from the books by selling club membership tickets at $1 each, which entitles every person buying to vote at the annual meeting and to probe into the affairs of the club. Two imports are all Colts want next year (so they say now). Barrie Boys are to be looked after first and the players are brought in unless all the players consent. School attendance and industry among the players is to be a strict rule, and no broken or lost time is to be paid the players unless for injuries.

A new deal in hockey was indicated in the Simcoe centre and we think they are on the right trail. Some of these ideas can well be adopted by any hockey club and if carried out all season pleasant dreams and not headaches mostly would be the lot of the exec. committee.

Tigers will organize immediately after the season is over this year. You can't do work in October and November that should have been done in the

The next meeting will be held on the first Monday in May at the home of Mrs. Donald Galbraith, Macell Ave.

CHIEF SEEKS WATCH IN WATERWORKS CREEK

Constable Alex. "Scotty" Walker of Markham last Friday took into custody a youth charged with systematically pilfering and looting in daytime houses, to which he gained entry during the householders' temporary absence, in Aurora, Unionville and Markham.

It was through the alertness of Mrs. Walker, the constable's wife, that he was apprehended. The man was identified as Earl Quinn of Toronto. Chief Constable Fisher Dunham was notified of the arrest of the suspect and immediately questioned him regarding the Aurora break-ins.

Quinn is said to have confessed to the chief that he had been responsible for entry at the home of L. Obee and Erastus Harman but denied any responsibility for the robbery at Miss Lina Holman's.

Chief Dunham told The Era he believed Quinn was not responsible for the latter episode, which savored greatly of local knowledge of the circumstances. A watch stolen from the Harman residence Quinn disclosed he had tossed away into the waterworks creek, and on Monday the chief went on a fishing expedition for the time-piece.

Surprise Bride and Groom With Party

Thirty-two friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Edward Levett, Tyler St., for a surprise party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Levett, who were quietly married some weeks ago. Mrs. Levett was the former Edna McClelleny of Aurora.

On behalf of those assembled, Misses Rita Chapman and Alice Stone presented the newlyweds with an occasional chair, and a beautiful relish dish on a silver platter. A social evening, at which a dainty luncheon was served, followed.

PLAN CHURCH CONCERT

On Sunday evening the Young People's Union of Aurora United church decided to make a contribution to the church building fund, and for the purpose of raising the funds a concert is to be held on Monday, April 29.

GREAT WAR VETERAN, LEWIS HARMAN DIES

The death occurred suddenly on Sunday evening of Lewis Harman, 811 St. in his 65th year. He was born in King township, the son of the late Jane Long and Peter Harman. He came to Aurora as a young man and was employed by J. Fleury & son.

In 1915 he enlisted and served overseas with the 81st C.M.R.'s. Always keenly interested in military affairs, he was a member of the 12th York Rangers for over 40 years, rising to the rank of sergeant. He held two long service medals for active service.

He was a member of United Empire L.O.L. 613 for the greater part of his life and held many offices. He was also a member of the Royal Black Preceptory and the Scarlet chapter of East Gwillimbury. Following his retirement from duty at the Fleury plant he was appointed mail carrier for the town and was one of the most familiar figures seen on Aurora streets.

He leaves surviving him three brothers, Wilmet of Hamilton, and Lambert Erastus of Aurora, and one sister, Mrs. Geo. Patrick of Aurora. A brother and a sister predeceased him within the last seven months.

Aurora fire brigade, of which Mr. Harman was a member for many years, joined with Aurora war veterans and attended the funeral service, which was held at his home.

Interment was at Aurora cemetery, Rev. A. R. Park of Aurora Baptist church, which Mr. Harman attended, was in charge of the service.

spring and summer months. A winning hockey club has got to be just about a year-round proposition.

NICE WORK GEORGE

George Hainsworth's Waterloo Siskins upset the dope on Monday when they wrote finis to the Tiger championship trail. After taking a 7-3 beating the previous Wednesday, Hainsworth figured out the Tiger weak and strong spots and had his boys play accordingly.

The Waterloo boys succeeded in both games in getting the number of Jimmy Cummings by scrappy checking, but both games Cummings drew five-minute sentences which didn't help any as the Tigers were short a man on one line. Martin and Schlote, the defence pair, bodied hard and made Pepper Martin a special target for slam treatment. It didn't do the Pepper any good either.

Billy Hainsworth was spotted in the one game as being a little bit weak on the right side, but uncle George had this weakness eliminated at once. Kitchener auditorium suits the Siskins' style of play to the well-known T and we think they'll take Owen Sound there. Strategy of making the other teams come to them and then strike when there's a pay-off spot has brought the Siskins thus far. Juvenile champs three years ago, they now may be headed for another title. Tigers were tired out but the Siskins have been on ice since September, and have played a lot of hockey and are still in good condition and full of fight. It speaks well for the coaching and care each boy must receive and the sacrifice the players have made for the club. That's the combination that really wins.

THE END OF THE TRAIL

Are you glad hockey's over? We suspect most of the players, fans and officials are feeling that way, although somewhat chagrined at the Waterloo defeat, and disappointed that we didn't annex a title. It's been a long season, with long trips, no home ice and sliced gates the picture of the past few weeks. Tigers have nothing to be ashamed about. They made a fine showing considering all the obstacles they had to hurdle. And they were the best collection of players to ever wear Aurora sweaters.

Play-offs last too long in the B series, and the round-robin series is not what it's cracked up to be so far as the club is concerned. It seems ridiculous that this title will only be decided a few weeks after the N.H.L. finals are over and all other inter-provincial play-downs finished. The result sees, in our opinion, the two best teams, Brantford and Aurora, left on the side lines watching the Siskins and Greys. In a goals-to-count series Tigers would have eliminated both finalists with plenty to spare.

On Thursday evening at about 7.15 Aurora firemen received a call to rush to the aid of a T.T.C. bus which was on fire near Bond Lake. The brigade quickly responded and were successful in putting out the conflagration by means of chemicals, before the 90-gallon gas tank exploded.

The fire, which did damage to the rear and to the engine of one of the new stream-lined busses to an estimated extent of close to $1,000, was caused by engine trouble, and the bus had been on fire for some miles before the blaze and smoke were noticed.

Fortunately the flow of gas to the engine poured out on the road, otherwise, firemen say, there would have been a terrific explosion. The bus was bound for Orillia, with nearly a full complement of passengers, and these were transferred to the Newmarket bus. No one was injured.

BOYS CAN'T WIRE BACK GOOD NEWS

Prior to the game Monday evening Tiger players received a telegram from Graham "Tiny" Teasdale from Buffalo, urging them to take the Siskins and extending best wishes.

The boys tried hard to work things out so they could send Tiny the popular "we won" wire after the game, but it wasn't to be. It was a nice gesture on the part of the Aurora boy, and players and officials were deeply appreciative.

Congratulations are being extended this week to one of The Era's oldest readers, Mr. George Spence, Sr., Wellington St., who today is celebrating his 83rd birthday. Mr. Spence is enjoying good health and is quite active. For many years he was employed by J. Fleury & Son, retiring some years ago.

TIGERS BEATEN IN FIRST SEMI-FINAL

George Hainsworth's Waterloo Siskins, obviously inspired by a crowd of howling supporters, and accustomed to the Kitchener auditorium ice surface, which is the shortest this writer has seen in years, won a 5-1 victory over Aurora Tigers in the first of the Junior B semi-final games on Friday.

Hainsworth presented a 3-2-1 blue line defence, and made Tigers carry the play to them, which caught them before they were at full steam due to the shortness of the rink and either steered them into the corners or sucked the Tigers deep into centre defence, from whence a fast breakaway game Joe Tunney a continuous barrage of rubber to handle.

Nettled by the close checking and the hooking and holding, of which Referee Talbot of Preston took no notice, Tigers began to hand back a few jabs of their own, but without finesse, and the second period was an Aurora nightmare, as there was a parade to the penalty bench. Waterloo scored three in the third, but only one while they had an odd-man advantage, but Tigers scarcely had a regular scoring trio on the ice together and their attack was shot to pieces at a time when they seemed as if they might strike their stride. Aurora had an edge the third session, but only one goal resulted.

From the stick of Frank Michaniuk, who was the outstanding Tiger player all evening. The final Waterloo goal came in the dying moments of the game, after Rowntree had yanked Tunney to use six forwards on the attack.

On Thursday evening at about 7.15 Aurora firemen received a call to rush to the aid of a T.T.C. bus which was on fire near Bond Lake. The brigade quickly responded and were successful in putting out the conflagration by means of chemicals, before the 90-gallon gas tank exploded.

SLEEP YOUR WAY TO HEALTH AND HAPPINESS

It's not how long you sleep, but how well, that starts you off in the morning with vitality and a grand sense of well-being! It is difficult to realize that we spend approximately four whole months of every year in bed, and to busy people the very thought of it seems a frightful waste of time. But, consider it for a moment!

Do you know that sleep is more important to the human body than food? People have been known to go many days, even weeks, without food, yet it is impossible for anyone to do without sleep for more than a week, without going insane. Indeed, an ancient form of Chinese torture was to keep prisoners awake. They were rarely able to keep their reason after the fifth or sixth day.

So you see how essential sleep is to life. The loss of only two hours of normal sleep makes work very much more tiring the next day, and it takes several nights' sound sleep to make it up again. Sleep is a medicine, a remedy. It allows the intricate and delicate machinery of the human body to restore lost energy, rebuild worn-out tissue, rest and relax over-strained muscles and refresh over-taxed minds.

There are few people who can maintain good health on less than eight hours' sleep out of every 24, and few who can retain a cheerful, happy outlook on life without this adequate amount of deep, comfortable sleep.

How necessary it is, then, to have a bed of the utmost comfort — a bed that allows complete relaxation? We, today, couldn't stand the strain of sleeping in the contraptions our ancestors used. The pace of modern living demands more than ordinary sleep—it demands a sleep so deep and refreshing that the mental and physical exhaustion of our strenuous, over-worked days is completely banished every night.

We couldn't sleep in trees as prehistoric man did, to protect himself from beasts of prey. Our bodies must relax. Some people today believe that the sudden, falling sensation we often have just before we go to sleep is a "throw-back" from those days when falling out of a tree must have been quite common.

It's a far cry from those ancient times to the utter comfort of the modern spring mattress. Indeed, it's even a far cry from the mattresses of just a few decades ago, though there are many people who have vivid recollections of the straw and old-fashioned hair mattresses with their bumps and hollows, and the smothering feather beds.

There is such a wide variety of mattresses on the market today, how is the inexperienced buyer to know when she is getting the most for her money? Well, here are a few questions she can clip out and take shopping with her for reference and comparison:

Is the border of the mattress pre-built to prevent the edges from rolling or sagging, to give the maximum width to the bed and allow for beautiful bed-dressing? Are the springs pocketed separately to keep them under control and on even height with each other; or at least built to give just the proper amount of "yield" to each sleeping movement?

Are there plenty of ventilators to allow a free flow of air through the mattress? Are there handy handles for easy mattress turning? Is all the material of new, first quality?

Is the tufting depressed enough to prevent hard lumps forming, not so deep as to form mounds and hollows, and firm enough to hold permanently? Is the covering of cheap, easily-split material or a good-looking, long-wearing fabric of pleasing appearance?

Lie on it. Is it too soft? Too hard? Does it give easily to every position of the body without forming uncomfortable hollows? Does it bear the name of a well-known and reliable manufacturer, such as Simmons?

It has been found that a fine quality mattress, though it may cost more, works out to a cost of only a cent or two a day, over a long period of years, while a less expensive mattress, which will not wear nearly as long, actually costs much more per day.

All these important questions are answered in the new Simmons Beautyrest mattress. Its new structural features make it more comfortable than ever, for in one four foot six Beautyrest there are 837 individually-pocketed coil springs, carefully built to the extreme edge of the mattress to ensure a straight edge that will not round or break down. Over half a mile of wire alone is used in one mattress — over 300 square feet of pocket cloth — over two miles of thread. There are over three and a half million Beautyrest mattresses now in use, and for long wear, quality and sleeping comfort, it is now more than ever a "best buy."

WHITCHURCH MARCH STORM COST WHITCHURCH $2,000

"I am delighted," declared Reeve Earl Toole at the Whitchurch council meeting last Saturday, when it was revealed that the recent snowstorms of the month of March, the worst in 27 years in the district, cost the municipality $2,000.

It was pointed out that some townships ran nearly double this amount for coping with this terrific storm, and all members of the council wore a gratified look of approval when they learned how they had been able to handle the situation so well. Total road accounts passed at the meeting amounted to $2,124. It was stated by the treasurer that snow shovelling to date had cost around $3,300, a figure below last year, when the township possessed no mechanical equipment for shovelling, and could not do as good a job.

Chief Engineer Harvey Rose wrote council urging them to proceed at once with the purchase of necessary strips of land at Bogartown and Pleasantville for the proposed widening of the county road. Mr. Rose stated that the department does not wish to make the curves any sharper than shown on the blue-prints submitted to the council some months ago. A committee of the council will look into the matter within the next week or two.

Arthur Wellesley, school attendance officer for King township, advised the council that he was not responsible for King children attending S. S. No. 3, King and Whitchurch. He stated that some years ago this matter was dealt with, when the jurisdiction of the children was placed in the hands of the Whitchurch officer.

Relief for the month of March totalled $191, and store accounts for this amount were ordered paid, mostly for groceries supplied.

Councillor Herb. Wells wanted to know why the council is not considering the passing of a by-law to license dairies peddling milk in the township. Reeve Toole warned that council had a sorry experience with one of these by-laws a few years ago, and if another one came up, he wanted it carefully considered and scrutinized before proceeding to pass it. The matter of a pedlars' by-law was also talked of, and the clerk said one was now drafted which might be introduced at the next meeting if the council desired it.

Following a long discussion with a representative of a liability insurance company, it was decided to insure the municipality against liability for accidents to any road employee. The rate is $3.50 per $100 of actual wages paid the men. In all cases of accident the decision of the Workmen's Compensation Board stands as law, and when apprised of all the facts, every member of the council decided the municipality could not afford to take the risks for any possible claims. Councillor George Leary and Deputy-Reeve J. Cook introduced the motion instructing the clerk to take out the coverage necessary.

DECIDE MEN ARE MORE WASTEFUL THAN LADIES

Eversley Young People's Society met at the home of Mrs. Jones last Monday night, Marie Ball, president, presiding. The important part of the program was taken by a debate subject, "Resolved that men waste more time and money than do women." The affirmative was taken by Marie Ball and Miss McClure, the negative by Art Bovair and James Wells.

The affirmative won by a small margin. The debate proved laugh provoking. It was well debated. The men claimed the women wasted more time by smoking and drinking and the women claimed the men wasted more time attending auction sales, their pet diversion.

A presentation was made at this meeting to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cairns (nee Hilda Cairns) in recognition of Mrs. Cairns' faithful services during these years. She was presented with a silver combination, containing pie and relish dishes.

Miss Annie Ferguson and 13 members of Eversley Juniors' Mission band visited Temperanceville Mission band on Saturday afternoon and thoroughly enjoyed the service. Mrs. McCrimmon of Maple was the guest speaker and interested her listeners in her missionary stories. There was a large attendance.

On Thursday afternoon members of Eversley W.M.S. were guests of the United church W.M.S. at their meeting at the parsonage of Rev. and Mrs. Douglas Davis.

Mrs. Jones, missionary on furlough from Japan, spoke on the work there. Mrs. Jones comes from the part where Rev. Dan Norman, D.D., carried on his splendid work, and to many present, who knew Mr. Norman, it was very inspiring.

Like a bolt from the blue comes the selling of the A. B. Wells farm on the corner of the third and King highway, and the sale of stock, implements, and feed, the property of James G. Wells. The auction sale will be on Friday of this week. Everyone hopes the family will not be lost from the community.

NORTH GWILLIMBURY
CUT SESSION SHORT
TO ATTEND FUNERAL

North Gwillimbury township council met at Belhaven on Monday, April 8. All members were present.

A shadow was cast over the proceedings by the recent death of Charles E. Willoughby, who for years was a most active and prominent figure in the municipal affairs of North Gwillimbury and York county. It was decided that out of respect for the memory of the late Mr. Willoughby, the council would deal only with urgent business and be ready to adjourn at 1 p.m. to attend as a body at the funeral service. The council concurred in sending a letter of condolence to Mrs. Willoughby and the family, expressing their sympathy for the family's bereavement.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted.
Communications from the department of highways notified the council that the recent purchase of a road grader was approved, also that the total net expenditure eligible for 1940 road subsidies would be $12,000. Tenders for the supply of road oil were examined. As these all amounted to about the same thing the clerk was given authority to arrange a contract for whatever supply would be needed.

Mr. Babb, Mr. Smith, and the clerk were appointed a committee to meet with the Bell Telephone Co. and arrange the location of the new pole line to be erected between Roche's Point and Varney Road.

The council decided to accept Robt. Weller's offer to transport the recently purchased grader from Paris.

The clerk was instructed to purchase a small table for use of the road superintendent at council meetings.

Councillor Babb brought up the matter of a survey of lots 10 and 11, near concession six, for assessment purposes. The council objected to undertaking this without knowing what the cost was going to amount to. It was decided to first ask W. A. Gibson for a set price for the job.

Accounts passed for payment were as follows: Lavern Pollock,

York, hospitalization, $185.42;

FOX HAS LITTER OF EIGHT

A fox at the fox ranch of L. B.
Pollock near Keswick gave him a great surprise recently when she gave birth to a family of eight. This is something which is very rare and has not happened since 1923.

ROCHE'S POINT
MOTHER AND DAUGHTER
BANQUET HELD BY W.I.

Miss Elsie Badland spent the weekend at her home here.

The closing meeting of the Anglican church W.A. was a very social afternoon, six tables of euchre being played. The first prize was won by Mrs.
Walinek and the second prize by Mrs. Blaine. The consolation prize was won by Miss M. C.
Young.

A very delicious supper followed, which was much enjoyed by all. All work started was finished and has been sent away.
A sale of work and home baking was decided on and is to take place on Saturday, Aug. 3, in the parish hall. There were 23
present.

The regular meeting of the Roche's Point Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. F.
Sherman. A report was read by the secretary and a very nice report by the treasurer, Mrs.
Walinek. There is a nice bank balance to begin the year with.

The election of officers then took place. Those elected were:
president, Mrs. Alex. Walinek;
vice-president, Mrs. E. Bunn;
secretary, Mrs. Victor Brydges;
treasurer, Mrs. J. Baines.

Two contests followed, and a very nice social hour. Tea was then served and a lucky number on the bottom of a cup caused a very quick reversal of cups to find it. The first contest was won by Miss Annie Blaine, and the second contest was won by Miss E. Young. The next meeting in May will be at the home of Mrs.
J. Cole.

The mother and daughter banquet for the W.I. was held in the parish hall on Friday, April 12.
Beautifully decorated tables, candles, silver flower baskets and fresh flowers made a fitting setting for the lovely banquet which followed. The grace was said by Mrs. Cole. A toast to the king was proposed by Mrs.
A. Walinek. "To our Mothers" was proposed by Miss Annie Blaine and responded to by Mrs.

Bunn. "To our Daughters," was given by Mrs. Sherman and responded to by June Bunn. "To our Institute," was given by Miss M. C. Young, retiring president, and responded to by Mrs. A.
Walinek, newly elected president, who gave an invitation to all to help during the coming year and spoke of what the W.I. stands for.

Mrs. Cole gave a very lovely selection and accompanied herself on the auto-harp. She then played two hymns for all the "little daughters" to sing, which were very lovely.

A recitation by Mrs. Tillett was much enjoyed. Everyone was so pleased to have Mrs.
Tillett present again for a visit.
Short stories were told by Miss Mittar and Mrs. Thompson, a reading was given by Miss E.
Young, and a very instructive contest by Miss E. Bunn.

Mrs. Sherman then played the piano for musical chairs for the children, and a song-sing followed. A very happy evening came to a close with the singing of O
Canada.

The W.I. wishes to thank everyone for making the evening a success and such a pleasant closing to their year.

The L.O.B.A. meets in Bel-haven hall on Thursday, April 25.
All members are invited to attend Queen Mary Lodge, Aurora, on April 22.

Friends are all pleased to see
Mr. Gordon Kelly able to be out again after six months in the hospital.

PEOPLE TURNED AWAY
FROM TRACTOR SHOW

The talkie moving pictures, sponsored by the Bruce Tractor and Equipment Co., shown in Art Alexander's Garage on Friday night last, were well attended, the garage being packed to the doors and some turned away.

Those attending were amply repaid by a good program. One picture, showing soil and moisture conservation, was very beneficial to farmers, considering the dry summers experienced in the last few years. It also showed the important part the Allis-Chalmers tractors take in these operations.
